Who we are

We are a leading institution for:

- Music
- Film
- Performing arts
- Games, animation, and VFX

We offer a vibrant and collaborative environment where colleagues work alongside industry professionals, talented students, and creative innovators who are shaping the future of the arts.

Our campuses are alive with activity, from rehearsals and live recordings to film shoots and creative workshops.

It’s an environment where ideas flow freely, professional practice is part of daily life, and students are encouraged to build careers from their passions. Being part of our BIMM Group means being immersed in creativity every single day.

Career growth & development

We are committed to investing in our people and supporting long-term career growth. With clear opportunities for progression, we aim to help colleagues reach their full potential and grow their careers with us.

Colleagues benefit from a range of development opportunities designed to build skills, experience, and confidence, including:

- Professional Practice Days
- The Postgraduate Certificate in Learning & Teaching
- Structured training programmes
- Senior Fellowship CPD programme
- Mentorship and internal development pathways
- BIMM University Postgraduate Study Funding Scheme

*Specific roles only

Industry connections and real-world impact

BIMM Group is deeply embedded in the creative industries. Our strong partnerships with professionals, organisations, and major events ensure staff and students benefit from meaningful industry engagement.

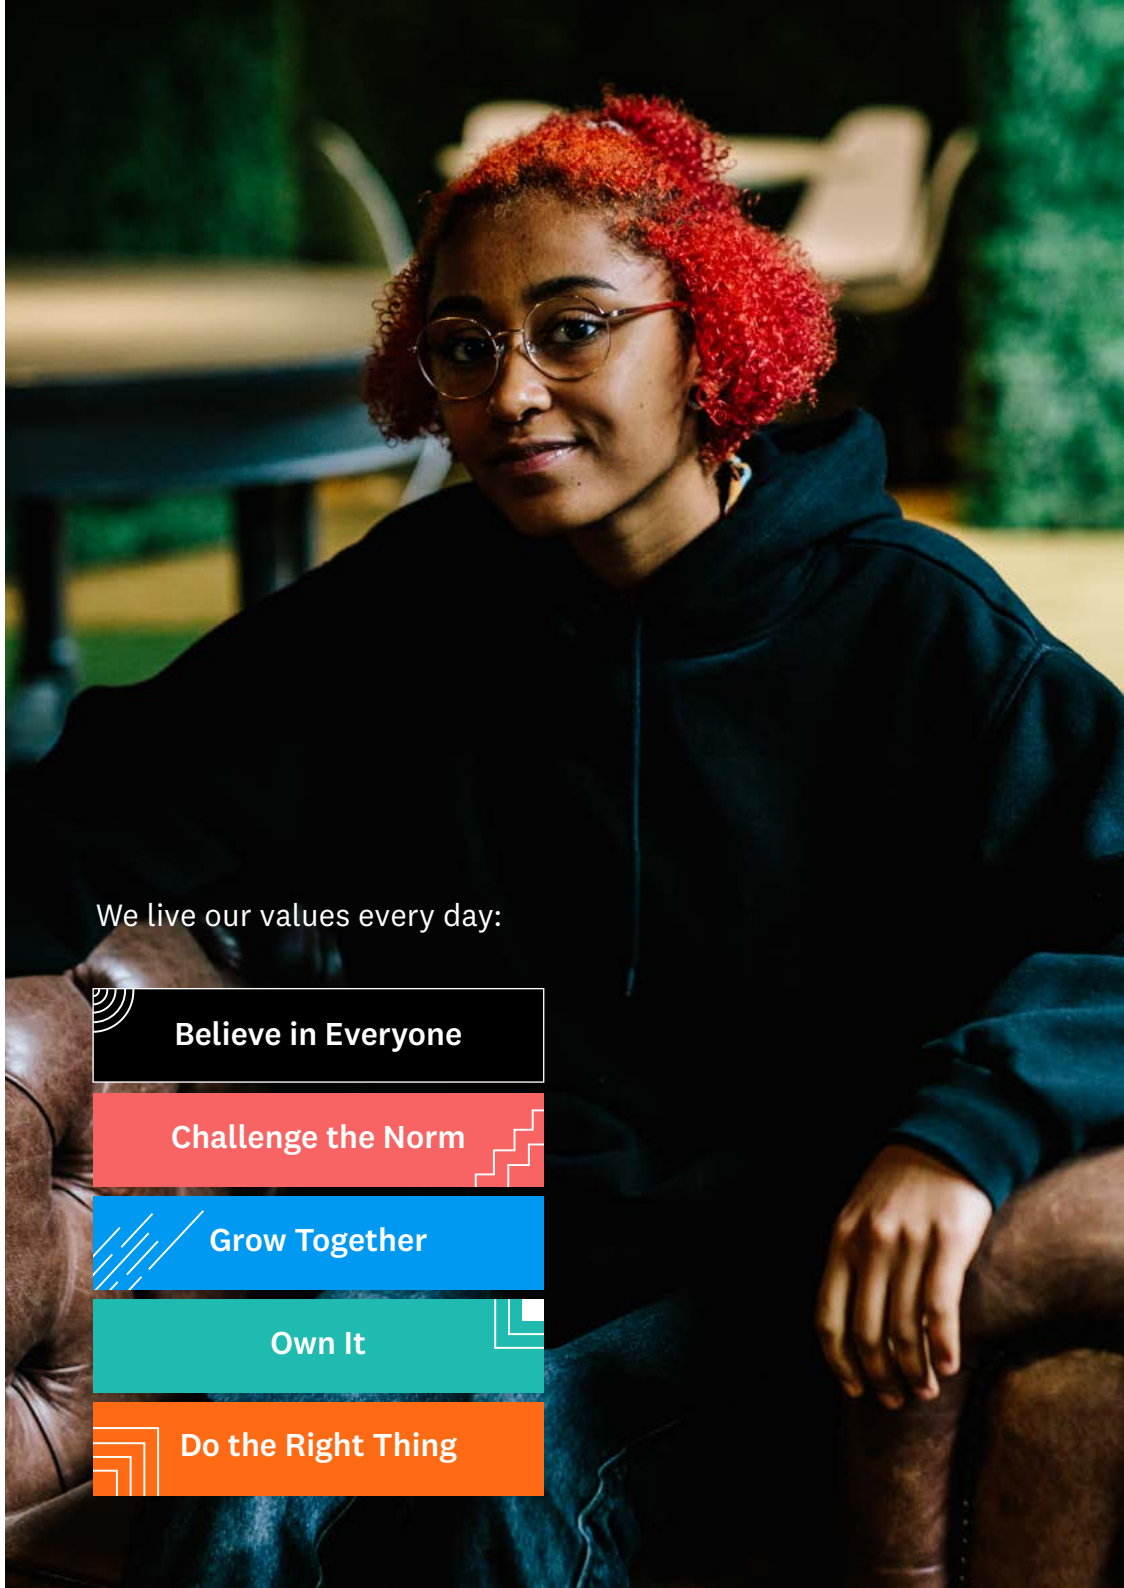

Colleagues play a key role in bridging the gap between education and professional practice, contributing to industry experiences that shape our students' creative careers.

A supportive and inclusive culture

Our people are our greatest strength. We are committed to fostering a diverse, inclusive, and supportive workplace where all voices are valued and respected. We celebrate difference, encourage open dialogue, and continuously strive to improve.

The BIMM Staff Council provides a platform for colleagues to share ideas, raise concerns, and help shape the future of the university.

We're also committed to open, transparent communication through regular updates that keep staff informed about key priorities, progress, and developments across the university. This ensures colleagues have a real voice and a clear line of sight into how decisions are made and how our community evolves.
