This class provides the audition panel with an opportunity to assess your current technical understanding and ability in two fundamental genres: ballet and jazz. It is a technical fusion class, combining both ballet and jazz techniques, designed to help you feel confident and comfortable, no matter your previous level of experience.

The session will begin with three short technical centre exercises in ballet, followed by a technical jazz section focusing on elements such as kicks, leaps, and turns. These exercises will allow you to demonstrate how you move across the floor, alongside your musicality and dynamic quality.

The audition panel will be looking for:

- Presentation and response
- Technical ability
- Execution (flexibility, dynamic application, stylistic understanding)
- Training potential

You can expect high-quality instruction from our team of highly experienced lecturers, specialising in dance and musical theatre. The session is structured to ensure that you feel supported while delivering a confident audition.

For this session, we suggest that you wear suitable attire that is form fitting and shows your lines well. For example:

- Leotard/sports bra/T-shirt/vest
- Tights – black/flesh tone/ballet tights

DANCE PERFORMANCE

This session will allow you to showcase your individual strengths and overall performance quality. It will include a structured, choreographed routine taught by a Commercial Dance lecturer, plus an opportunity for you to perform a short prepared piece in your chosen style.

The choreographed routine is designed to be achievable yet challenging. It is current, industry-relevant, and incorporates both technical and stylistic elements, allowing participants of all levels to excel and perform with confidence. At the end of the choreography, there will be time for improvised or freestyle movement, giving you a chance to further explore and express your individuality.

- Stylistic quality, execution, and musicality
- Performance quality and artistry
- Training potential

Prepared piece of choreography and performance

We would like to emphasise that this part of the audition is optional.

If you choose to participate, we encourage you to prepare a solo piece of choreography, no longer than 1 minute. This is an opportunity to showcase your personal style and abilities in your preferred dance genre. You will be required to submit your chosen track before the audition day.

You are also welcome to bring any additional items like shoes, hats, or props into the room at the start of the session to prepare for the individual showcases.

Your song should be no longer than 3 minutes. Prior singing coaching is not a requirement, and this will be taken into account when assessing your suitability for the course.

It is preferred that you bring sheet music for your chosen piece, as you'll by accompanied by one of our pianists.
