

Congratulations! You have completed a successful interview for the BA (Hons) Music Business at BIMM Institute Dublin – what's next?

- Offers for this course will be issued directly by the BIMM Dublin Admissions team from late May.
- If you have passed your interview and are 23 or above, or have already submitted all academic transcripts, you will be issued an official offer.
- If you have yet to submit supplementary documents, ie. Proof of English proficiency and/or academic results, you will receive a conditional offer until these documents have been received. You can submit your transcripts directly by email to info@bimm.ie
- Passed your interview but haven't received an offer? Check that you have met and submitted proof of the academic requirements. If you are confident that you should have received an offer please call our Admissions team at 01 513 3666 or email via info@bimm.ie and have your academic qualifications to hand.
