Data Storage

BIMM operate a record retention policy which outlines how long different types of information are kept. Different records are retained for different lengths of time depending on the purpose for collecting the data. Retention schedules will be determined by legal, statutory, contractual or business needs.

Where necessary, we may transfer personal information outside of the UK. When doing so, we comply with the UK GDPR, making sure appropriate safeguards are in place.

BIMM University will only store your personal data in the UK, EEA or another country where the UK government have granted adequacy under the data partnership agreements. If there is a need to process personal data in another territory, BIMM University will ensure that relevant security measures are in place to protect your personal data. This will include placing contractual obligations on our data processors or ensuring recipients have subscribed to the relevant international frameworks that aim to ensure adequate protection.

Who we share information with and why we share it

We do not share information about our students with anyone without their consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Information is shared within our company structure. As part of this any data collected by BIMM University Limited and Met Film School Limited will be shared with BIMM Group Limited for the purpose of providing an education. This data sharing takes place under an intra group agreement which governs the appropriate use and security requirements of your personal data.

We routinely share data with:

- The companies who collectively form BIMM, in line with the requirements of our intra company agreement
- Other educational providers involved in the joint delivery of a course
- Local authorities
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- The Education Skills and Funding Agency (ESFA)
- The Office for Students (OfS)
- Jisc (formally The Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA))
- Student Finance England (SFE)
- Student Loans Company (SLC)
- Employers that sponsor a student on a course or study (e.g. apprenticeship)
- Agencies who are required to audit our student and financial records
- Agencies who support the collection of unpaid / outstanding course fees
- National Health Service and local NHS Trusts
- Law enforcement agencies
- Youth support services
- The Home Office (in the context of immigration and UKVI visa applications)

Where a student has provided emergency contacts, their details will be held in our student record system against the student. These details will only be used to contact the named individual(s) in the event of an emergency or to safeguard the student.

The university do not routinely share information on a student's performance and progress at university with parents, guardians, carers or any other family member or individual in the student's personal life without the express consent of that student. This consent is collected in the form of a nominated contact.

Your data may be shared with third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer or merge parts of our business or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them. If a change happens to our business, or is proposed to happen, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this Privacy Notice.

Student information available under the freedom of information act

BIMM University Limited has obligations under the Freedom of Information Act. Full details of what information is made available to the public for inspection can be found in our publication scheme published on our website. The following student information will be made public:

- Summary details of student achievement and examination successes
- Student participation in productions and events related to or resulting from their studies. This may include, but is not limited to photographs, videos, spoken records and documents. Where practical and required by regulations the permission of the individual will be obtained before this is done.

Any individual who has reason for wishing that any of these details should remain confidential should contact the privacy team.

Department for Education

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections. We are required to share information about our students with the Department for Education (DfE) either directly or via our local authority for the purpose of those data collections, under The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls, which meet the current government security policy framework. For more information, please see the 'How Government uses your data' section.

Requesting personal data held by the Department for Education

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018, you are entitled to ask the Department:

- if they are processing your personal data
- for a description of the data they hold about you
- the reasons they're holding it and any recipient it may be disclosed to
- for a copy of your personal data and any details of its source

If you want to see the personal data held about you by the Department, you should make a 'subject access request'. Further information on how to do this can be found within the Department's personal information charter that is published at the address below:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department-for-education/about/personal-information-charter>

To contact DfE visit: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>.

Office for Students

We will share information about students enrolled on higher education courses with the Office for Students (OfS). OfS collects personal data on students to fulfil their public tasks under the Higher Education and Research Act (HERA) 2017, including their responsibilities as the lead regulator for higher education in England.

For more information on the data OfS collect and how they process that data, please view their privacy notice published at the address below:
