S1.5 Reasonable Adjustments
If you have a disability which means there are adjustments you would like us to consider making to our process, please indicate these here. (If necessary, we will contact you to discuss this in further detail.)

Note: If your contact details change at any point during the appeals process, it is important that you notify the member of staff dealing with your appeal at the earliest opportunity. Furthermore, you need to inform the member of staff dealing with your appeal if you are going to be away and unable to be contacted during the appeals process.

Section 2 (Optional):

As part of the internal review process, you are entitled to appoint a representative to act on your behalf. This is entirely optional and is meant to help students who don't feel able to engage with the appeals procedure themselves.

If you elect to appoint a representative, the University will communicate only with them throughout the review process. You are free to choose anyone appropriate (including a family member) who is willing to act on your behalf and is able to put your case forward.

The following people would not be appropriate representatives:

- Any legal representative
- Your Doctor
- A member of University staff
