

Student Complaints Guidance

This guidance and associated form is for use by students enrolled on courses leading to a BIMM University Award, as well as those enrolled on a course leading to a University of Sussex award.

Any other students should contact their Course Leader in the first instance.

Please ensure that you have read and understood the Complaints Procedure, which can be found on our website.

Informal Process

Wherever possible, if you are considering making a complaint, you are strongly advised to talk to one of the following postholders. They can advise you on how to deal with your appeal and help to resolve it directly and informally in the first instance - if necessary, they can support you in the process of making a formal appeal:

- Student Support Advisor
- Course Leader
- Head of Student Services
- College Principal
- One of your Student Representatives.

Timelines

It is important that complaints are submitted in a timely manner - complaints should be submitted within 90 days of concluding the informal process. Late submissions are unlikely to be considered unless you can provide sufficient evidence of mitigating circumstances.

If the complaint is not on time you are required to provide an explanation as to why it is late. It is very important that you complete this section of your complaint form because, if your complaint is late and you do not have good reason for this, it may be rejected. If you are able to provide evidence in support of the reason why your complaint is late, this will strengthen the case for allowing your complaint to be accepted late.

You will be informed, in writing, of the outcome of your complaint within 28 days. You will also be informed if, for any reason, there is likely to be any delay in the process.

E-mail address guidance

You are strongly advised to use your student e-mail address throughout the academic appeal process, as all traffic between University staff and student email accounts is encrypted by default. If you elect to use a non-student e-mail address, we will use this for all communications that do not include sensitive personal information. When we need to send files that contain sensitive personal details, we will send them to your student e-mail account and send a notification to your chosen personal email address.

If you do not currently have a student e-mail address, it is important that you supply us with a mobile phone number. In these cases, files containing sensitive data will be encrypted using a password, this password will be sent to you via text message.

Section 2 (Optional):

As part of the complaints process, you are entitled to appoint a representative to act on your behalf. This is entirely optional and is meant to help students who don't feel able to engage with the complaints procedure themselves.

If you elect to appoint a representative, the University will only communicate with your representative throughout the process. A close family member would be the best choice, but you are free to choose anyone appropriate who is willing to act on your behalf and is able to put your case forward.

By signing this form, you are agreeing that the University can hold and process the data you have submitted for the purposes of investigating your complaint. You are also agreeing that data already submitted to the University by you for other purposes (such as mitigating evidence claims or assessment scripts) may be collected and processed as evidence as part of the investigation.

The data collected as part of the complaints process will be held by the University for 15 months from the date the process concludes (this will also include any reviews you may request) after which time will be deleted or anonymised (although data from other procedures that has been used in the investigation process may continue to be held). If the complaints process requires us to keep data for longer than the 15-month period, you will be informed.

If necessary, information from your complaint may be shared with members of staff for the purpose of conducting the investigation and where possible this will be anonymised. If you submit a request for review to the University of Sussex (if applicable) or the Office for the Independent Adjudicator (OIA), the regulatory body for complaints and appeals in UK Higher Education, then any data submitted and processed as part of your complaint will be shared with the relevant organisation to facilitate their investigation. You will not be disadvantaged in anyway by raising a complaint against a member of staff - however, in order to provide a process that is fair to both parties, staff members will have the right to see allegations made against them as necessary for them to respond fully. Usually your name and excerpts of section S4.1 of this form will be disclosed to them.

If you are submitting electronically type your name in the signature box.
